GREEN MOUNTAIN INN AND WILLOUGHVALE INN ONCE AGAIN NAMED TO NEW ENGLAND TRAVEL 2010 'BEST OF NEW ENGLAND'

STOWE, VT – The Green Mountain Inn in Stowe, VT and its sister property the WilloughVale Inn in Westmore, VT have been named for the second year in a row to the New England Travel 2010 "Best of New England" list published by the editors of Boston Magazine. The guide's travel experts research inns and hotels throughout New England and their selections are based on a variety of criteria including level of hospitality, quality of accommodations, customer service, amenities and dining choices.

Says Innkeeper Patti Clark, "We are delighted that the Green Mountain Inn and WilloughVale Inn have been named to the 'Best of New England' list two years in a row, as our goal has always been to offer our guests a memorable stay at a great value for their hard-earned travel dollars. We are continually upgrading and reinvesting in both properties to make sure our accommodations are comfortable, welcoming and our amenities of the highest quality. We take pride in our long tradition of consistently delivering outstanding customer service, attention to detail and the warm hospitality our guests have come to expect from us. To see both inns named to the New England Travel 2010 list tells us we're on the right track in meeting those expectations."

Recently the Green Mountain Inn was voted Number 34 in the Condé Nast Traveler on concierge.com fifteenth annual "Readers' Choice Survey of Top 50 Ski Hotels in North America" and TripAdvisor.com ranks the inn as the #1 Hotel in Stowe.

Says Clark, "The Green Mountain Inn and the WilloughVale Inn are set in two incredibly beautiful Vermont locations, each with its own distinctive character and ambiance. Guests at either inn are sure to enjoy a truly unforgettable escape."

Situated in the heart of Stowe village, the historic Green Mountain Inn has been offering travelers respite for over 175 years.
